Le Boudoir's The Louvre

Celebrating Le French May, which continues well into June, Le Boudoir honours the most famous of all the world's museums with this tasty tippie. A drink that would usually slap you in the face with its hefty tequila content is mellowed by fresh coriander and lime juice. Orange liqueur perfumes the cocktail and adds a layer of warmth. Parfait! 65 Wyndham St, Central, 2530 3870; french-creations.com/boudoir. $108.
