Le Boudoir

When you're on Wyndham Street in Hong Kong, bar-hopping is a must-do affair. Finding Le Boudoir can be a challenge because the entrance is tucked away somewhere along the bar strip on the hilly Wyndham. Once you find it, you need to take the stairs down to a basement—and voila! Inside is a sultry yet sexy small bar with old-school French-inspired designs. Velvet sofas, chandeliers, Marie Antoinette-style mirrors, plus French patrons and fantastic cocktails are key elements that make this bar a place worth checking out.
