With the summer heat hitting full force, it's time for some refreshing new dishes and a laid-back hang out – just what Metropolitain offers. Located in Sai Yung Pun, the restaurant is styled like a Parisian Metro station, with a full-length bar, sofas and even an outdoor terrace. It's got that je ne sais quoi Hong Kong needs. The new summer menu offers lighter lunches and sweet treats. Try the strawberry tart ($78), the ideal summer dessert that won't leave you feeling full to the brim!
