

Pastis

65 Wyndham St, Central.

Tel: 2537 5702

The bar is a temple to both the anise-based French drink and the country's advertising industry. The countertop may not be zinc, but this bar is likely to remind every French person of back home.

The drinks: the bar has Stella on tap and makes standard cocktails to order, but you should visit for the French drinks. The clue is in the name for the bar's signature drink. A Pastis Henri Bardouin comes tall with water, and it goes down easily. The drinks menu also includes an interesting selection of French spirits including Calvados, Poire Williams and Armagnac, but only one cognac.
